

What is CACL?

CACL is a collaboration between the Institute on Disability (IOD) and the Institute for Health Policy and Practice (IHPP) at UNH.

CACL engages with a variety of partners to promote an integrated approach to applied research, evaluation and trainings.

CACL offers many services and resources such as:

- Identify and promote best practice in field
- Trainings for various populations
- Evaluation expertise
- Increasing general knowledge base
- Informing public policy related to aging and disability

Where is CACL?

CACL has 2 locations:

IOD Offices

56 Old Suncook Road
Suite 2
Concord, NH 03301

IHPP Offices

4 Library Way
Suite 202, Hewitt Hall
Durham, NH 03824

Interested?

Talk to your second year field coordinator in the Social Work Department!

Visit: www.agingandcommunityliving.org

CENTER ON AGING AND COMMUNITY LIVING

Promoting person-centered options for living and aging in our communities

An MSW Internship

Vision of CACL

All New Hampshire residents have access to person-centered options to allow them to live and age in the communities of their choice.

Everyone deserves options!

Why CACL?

CACL is a unique internship opportunity for MSW students that are interested in administrative duties, policy development and community organizing surrounding aging and community living.

As a Master's level intern, responsibilities may include:

- Evaluation reporting
- Attending legislative meetings
- Assisting with various curriculums
- Grant writing
- Networking
- Helping to implement new projects
- Organizing events
- Attending various meetings, events, workshops and work groups
- Site visits
- Co-Facilitating a group

CACL Project Areas

